

Digital Info Security Company Signs Letter of Intent with 4D Global Partners

Thursday February 14, 2008

DISC's Remote Backup Product to be Marketed and Sold Under "For Dummies®" Brand

Digital Info Security Company (OTC: DGIF - News), is pleased to announce continued progress with 4D Global Partners in distributing its professional remote backup product under the "For Dummies®" brand.

Since exhibiting together at the CES in January, DISC and 4DGP have moved forward in their relationship by signing a Letter of Intent. DISC has paid $150,000 in advanced royalties (in escrow) to commence the joint marketing effort.

DISC's professional online backup manager automatically backs up data on a PC or server to a secure Data Center. Files can be easily retrieved 24/7 from any location with an internet connection. The solution is geared towards small to mid-sized businesses and offers professional IT support and world-class data center reliability.

4D Global Partners sells and markets consumer electronics products under the world renowned "For Dummies®" brand. Under its agreement with Wiley Publishing, 4DGP holds a license for the use of the "...For Dummies®" logo, icons, characters, style, design, trade names, and proprietary structure and format for data storage product and solutions.
