LeanStream Media Inc. to Revolutionize Video Distribution

Westminster, CO —

Digital Info Security Company (DGIF) (DISC) announced today an agreement with TMM, Inc (TMMI), InvestorsPipeline.net Limited, (IPL) to create LeanStream Media Inc., a Colorado Company, to market a revolutionary video compression technology that will allow HD video on demand. "We have been very impressed with the video quality that TMM and IPL have demonstrated and are very excited to move forward with them in developing this company," said James Clark, Chairman and CEO of Digital Info Security Company (DISC). "This agreement is an important first step in bringing our products and services to market in the rapidly growing Internet streaming video market. DISC will support this new endeavor with its state of the art datacenter."

ABOUT TMM, INC

(TMMI - Pink Sheets Electronic Quotation Service) TMMI has been involved in the video compression business since 1992. In the mid 1990's TMMI's SoftVideo was featured in industry leading CD-Rom games, Falcon Gold and Star Trek The Next Generation, produced by Spectrum Holobyte. In 2006, TMMI expanded into the geobrowsing business and produced coverage of the 2006 World Cup inside the Google Earth platform.

ABOUT INVESTORSPipeline.NET, LIMITED
